The History of the Divine Mercy Devotion

The world was in the midst of the Great Depression in 1931 and the memories of World War I were still very much alive in the minds of Europeans when in Poland a Sister of the Congregation of Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy, Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938), is said to have been personally visited by Jesus.

According to her diary, which was listed on the Index of Forbidden Books for more than 20 years, an image was revealed to her of the risen Lord, from whose heart shone two rays, one red (representing blood) and the other "pale" (symbolizing water), with the words "Jesus, I trust in you" at the bottom. Faustina wrote in her diary that Jesus told her, "I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish."

When she was canonized in 2000 under the direction of fellow countryman Pope John Paul II, he proclaimed that the Second Sunday of Easter would henceforth be known as Divine Mercy Sunday, thereby widely promoting the devotional practices associated with Faustina's visions, already popular in many communities.

The practice of praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet has gained devotion over the years. It is recommended to pray the Divine Chaplet on regular Rosary Beads beginning at 3:00 each day to honor the hour that Our Lord Died on the Cross in meditation on His sacred Passion, and to beg forgiveness for the sins of the world.

The ladies of the Altar Society invite you to pray the Rosary at 6:10 pm. Tuesday, April 10, followed by Mass at 6:30. You are welcome to join us in the parish hall for a short business meeting.

“Blessed are those who have not seen, but have believed.”

The PROPHETS: Messengers of God's Mercy Session 6: Jeremiah – The Broken-Hearted Prophet

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations.” Jeremiah 1:5

The first part of this familiar scripture is commonly known to help people see that God knows and loves everyone even before they are born and to bring awareness that abortion kills a baby in the womb. The idea that God really does know us before we are formed in the womb!!! Awesome!

These are the words of God calling young Jeremiah to be a prophet. Jeremiah told God he was too young and didn't know what to say. God calls us every day to speak for Him, to be a prophet. Like Jeremiah, we have excuses why we are unable to be His prophet: too young, too old, afraid, shy, too difficult, don't know what to say. Jeremiah accepted God's call relying on divine strength. God gave him the words and the courage. God will do the same for us.

The book of Jeremiah is not written chronologically so we need help following this story. Join us as Thomas Smith of the Great Adventure Bible Study opens the scripture and brings the message of God's Infinite Mercy to us.

Adult Bible Study meets next Wednesday, April 11 at 6:30 pm in the Religious Education Building.

God bless all of you who provided the beautiful Easter flowers for the altar again this year. Thanks too, to the Sacred Heart Altar Society who give unselfishly of their time to make sure the flowers are purchased, delivered on time and arranged so beautifully on the altar. The flowers were given in memory of our loved ones. May they Rest in Peace.
