Thank you, Sara Osborn, for compiling the most recent list of Liturgical Ministers. Copies of all who currently serve in Liturgical roles are available on the table in the back of the church. Please take a copy and check your contact information. Call the Parish Office with any changes so we can keep the list updated. We're always in need of additional parishioners to serve as Liturgical Ministers. With summer coming and so many of us traveling out of town on weekends, it's sometimes hard to fill needed spots at Mass. Please consider volunteering for these roles. Thank you to all who help every week.

Friday seems to be the day our parishioners have chosen to practice stewardship. Many attend the 12:10 Mass to receive our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. After a short visit with each other, and cool water is passed out, they get to work! The Heyburn Clan start up the lawn mowers and we hear the sound of weed eaters, blowers, vacuum cleaners and mops being swished around. John Walls makes sure the blades are sharp and gasoline is in the tanks. The tasks that are completed on Fridays and other days save the Parish many dollars annually and allow money to be used in other areas of need. This work might go unnoticed by those who come to the parish once a week but we all appreciate how clean and well kept our campus is.

In Colossians 3:23-24 Paul writes:

Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.

Friday's Noon Mass Intentions are devoted to the volunteers who are "More Precious than Gold". Thank you all for your service to God and Church.

150th Memorial Day

Associate editor Melinda Stotts of the Miami New-Record will be the guest speaker May 28, 9 a.m. at G.A.R. Cemetery sharing the moving story of local WWII U.S. Navy Veteran Glenn Pitts. The Mass for the Preservation of Peace and Justice will precede the cemetery ceremony at Sacred Heart at 8 a.m.

Remember, The Bishop is coming!

Friday, June 8th, is the Feast of the Sacred Heart. Bishop Konderla will be at our parish to celebrate Mass at 6 pm. After Mass the Bishop will bless our construction projects and stay for dinner. We'll have a speaker who will give a presentation on the architecture of our church during dinner. In order to help the cooks prepare for the meal, Sara Osborn has placed a sign up sheet in the back of church to let us know you're coming! Thank you to the 100 parishioners who have already signed up! Please mark your calendars and join your parish family for an evening with the Bishop.

Left to right: Manuel Garcia, Nash Flores, Rodriquo Andres and Ignacio Zavala, (not pictured) show up almost every Friday for noon Mass and stay to help clean both the inside of the Church and keep the outside spiffed up too. Thank you to these self-less men for their gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure to our parish.

Thank You, Patrick Gentile

who willingly came to church on a Saturday to help in whatever capacity was needed. Plans to supplement the outstanding work provided by Friday volunteers after Mass who have provided church and parish hall cleaning, equipment setup and grounds keeping under the leadership of Nash Flores, by continuing the painting of parking lot striping and spraying weed killer, were curtailed due to threatening rain.

As a result an indoor job of inspecting and reactivating the Audex Assistive Listening System was accomplished. In the process it was discovered that the cry room speaker was also not functioning. Now both are operational thanks to our volunteer's persistence and patience.

Five headsets are available near the baptismal font for those who would like enhanced hearing of the church sound system throughout the nave of the church. The units need to be directed with a clear line-of-sight to the infrared portable emitter located to the right of the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Prayer To The Holy Trinity

O Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore Thee profoundly. I offer Thee the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages and indifferent by which He is offended. By the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg the conversion of the poor sinners.
